Holiday pajama party returns to Great Lakes Science Center for two Saturday mornings in December

CLEVELAND (November 25, 2019) – The North Pole awaits! The modern holiday classic “The Polar Express” returns to Great Lakes Science Center for two special Pajama-Rama screenings this December, from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, December 14 and Saturday, December 21 in the Cleveland Clinic DOME Theater.

Keep the kids in their “jammies” and bring your holiday crew to the Science Center for a hot cocoa bar with whipped cream, marshmallows and sprinkles, plus liquid nitrogen peppermint ice cream, cookies, a hands-on science activity and of course, “The Polar Express” in the DOME Theater!

Pajama-Rama is for two special holiday mornings only, so don’t miss it! Tickets are $19.99 for adults and $16.99 for kids ages 2-12. Science Center members receive a $2 discount per ticket. Tickets are available online at GreatScience.com or by calling 216-621-2400. Event check-in begins at 9 a.m., and the movie will begin at 10 a.m.

(Editor’s note: The Science Center’s fall-winter schedule is 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. Sundays. The Science Center is closed on Mondays, during all Cleveland Browns daytime home games and for Thanksgiving on November 28 and Christmas on December 25. The Science Center will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday, December 23 and Monday, December 30 for special winter break hours and will close early at 3 p.m. on Tuesday, December 24.)

About Great Lakes Science Center

Great Lakes Science Center, home of the NASA Glenn Visitor Center, makes science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) come alive for more than 300,000 visitors a year through hundreds of hands-on exhibits, temporary exhibitions, the Cleveland Clinic DOME Theater, Steamship William G. Mather, daily science demonstrations, seasonal camps, and more. The Science Center, a 501(c)(3) non-profit institution, is funded in part by the citizens of Cuyahoga County through Cuyahoga Arts and Culture. Visit GreatScience.com for more information.
